Non Certified Open Division

PLEASE Check back for prize money changes THEY ARE GOING UP THIS YEAR!

This division is meant to mimic the types of contests found in Texas. Anyone may enter but please realize this is a higher level competition.

1. Each contestant will be given playing order by a random draw or the contest committee - this order will continue throughout the division changing only by number of contestants remaining after each cut.
2. Contestants shall play a Breakdown, Waltz and Tune of Choice for the first round.
3. No time limits but points will be deducted for repetitive playing. Contestants are asked to present a performance demonstrating Texas-style. Please present your tunes in the traditional manor and build within the context of the tune and the style.
4. Tunes played by any contestants in the first and any further rounds shall be forbidden for the rest of the division. It is the judges intention to stretch the player's abilities past the top 12 tunes that are often overplayed at contests. Forbidden tunes will be posted after each round.
5. Contestants must be available for all call back's and have 5 minutes to report to the contest director once they are notified of a call back.
6. Top five contestants enter the sudden death - round robin for the finals of the division.
 - a) All contestants will remain on stage during the round robin
 - b) Judges determine what types of tunes will be played
 - c) Previous contestant order will continue throughout the division changing only by number of contestants remaining after each cut.
7. Top 3 Contestants - remain on stage for round robin
 - a) Judges determine what shall be played
 - b) Requests may include specific tunes, keys or improvisation.
